

February 28, 2014

Canadian Value Creation Dealmaker of the Year for 2013

Last evening in Toronto, High Liner Foods was recognized by the Canadian Dealmakers program which honors participants who have made a significant contribution to the Merger and Acquisitions market. This prestigious Canadian award is for companies and individuals whose transactions have significantly impacted their industry through innovation and growth; establishment of best practices; enhancement of customer needs and products; and, creation of value. Henry Demone and Kelly Nelson accepted the award on behalf of High Liner.

We are very pleased to share this achievement and to know that we are Best-in-Class!