

High Liner Foods Awarded Supplier of the Year for the Second Consecutive Year by Long John Silver's

Last Friday evening at their annual convention, Long John Silver's recognized High Liner Foods with their Supplier of the Year award. Zac Schwarzbach accepted the award on behalf of the entire High Liner team.

Long John Silver's is working hard to strengthen their brand through a plan that calls for improved quality, service, and cleanliness of their restaurants. The leadership of LJS chose to recognize High Liner Foods for the second year in a row as Supplier of the Year, citing that the High Liner Foods team has been instrumental in the effort to stabilize their core business through our focus on product and service quality. Additional recognition was given for our support of development of new products that are in test now and are on target to launch system wide in the spring of 2016.

Congratulations to the entire team. Customer recognition is difficult to earn, and to be named Supplier of the Year two consecutive years is truly something to be proud of.
